Creating Change

The most powerful change is effortless. It does not come from arduous labor, but from a sudden change of perspective. Mastering the secrets of soul-centered living, will not miraculously make difficulties go away. But it will allow you to succeed at what truly matters to you by teaching you the secrets of the intuitive mind.

Soul Quest

SoulQuest is a personal development program tailored to business professionals. In a series of one-hour sessions, you will learn the ways of the intuitive mind by using it to resolve issues and address points of tension in your personal or professional life.

You will learn to:

- Create win-win solutions by releasing emotional attachments.
- Trust your intuition and use it to achieve career objectives.
- Understand the true nature of creative power.

Some will require only a single session to resolve a concrete issue, whereas others may chose regular consultations.

Connecting to the Presence

There is a presence that flows through all life-forms and drives them towards self-expression and reproduction.

You carry this presence inside you. Your feelings, thoughts and creative drives are all manifestations of this presence as it touches your heart, mind and soul.

SoulQuest offers you a path to personal mastery of the hidden powers of heart and mind and the key to create what you truly want in your life.

SoulQuest – Discover your Flow

Whether you are a leader, an athlete or an artist, being able to connect to the center of your being and act from a point of soul attunement is the key to genuine success.

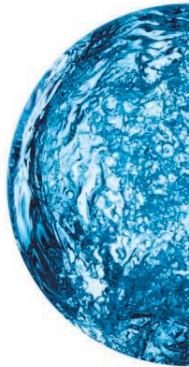

SoulQuest is an inner growth process that instantly brings you in touch with your core and gradually teaches you to master the most powerful tool you will ever know – the intuitive mind.

True Business Excellence

Strategic thinking, technical skills and industry are no longer enough. To be a true leader you need personal integrity, intuition and the tough assertiveness that comes from living from your soul-center.

True Leadership grows from conviction of heart, clarity of mind and courage to lead where others fear to tread. There are no shortcuts to true excellence but many detours. TLI can show you the way!

Work-life Balance

Pursuing career goals while being a model spouse, lover, parent and friend can result in stress or burn-out. Creating a healthy work-life balance often requires confronting cultural prejudice and unhealthy social norms that have been involuntarily internalized.

Facing this will allow you to make choices that match your true needs because you act from deep inner conviction rather than imputed norms and expectations.

Peak-performance

In the source of all being individual ambition is dissolved in the presence of universal oneness. Paradoxically, opening yourself to this source is the key to tap your true source of greatness and let your full potential flower.

Tapping into this source allows you to align mind, body and spirit. Achieving this will vitalize your emotional life, clarify your mental perceptions and increase your physical capacity.

Conflict Resolution and Prevention

Most conflicts are fueled by emotional charges born from painful experiences. To shield ourselves we create stories in which we are innocent victims of circumstance. But it is a lie!

By courageously facing your true emotions you can liberate life energy, resolve conflicts and enjoy good relations.

Master Workplace Emotions

Emotions relating to love, power and status are often suppressed in the workplace. Power games and manipulation are the inevitable outcomes.

Mastering emotional dynamics can turn a workplace upside down, birthing great results and emotional contentment as mutual trust and emotional clarity allow workers to tap their deep inner resources.

Corporate Stewardship

To feel content about whom we are and what we do, we need to act responsibly and honor the delicate balances that make life on our planet possible.

Living lightly, being mindful and pursuing sustainable lifestyles are the ways of the future. Our hearts long for it and the climate demands it. Businesses that recognize this trend, and capitalize on it, will be the winners of the future.
